

TRANSFERS OF HOMESTEADS

Governor L. E. Pinkham, upon the recommendation of Joshua D. Tucker, commissioner of public lands, has approved of three homestead transfers on Kauai. Other land office work relating to the Garden Island is now awaiting the sanction of the governor and it is expected that this will be cleared up within a short time. The location of the homesteads and the parties figuring in them are as follows:

Kalaheo, Kauai--Francisco Callego to Francisco Fernandez; Simao Moito to Juan Cascale; Philip K. Palma to Ramon Bagliot.

Lawai, Kauai--Tom to Manuel Jacintho Martins; Joe Silva to Antonio Tavares.

Wahiawa, Kauai--Manuwa Pule to Lorenzo Ruiz; Lono Keawe to William Rowan.

No little favorable comment is being heard in Honolulu regarding the speedy action of Sheriff William Rice and Circuit Judge Lyle A. Dickey of Kauai in securing and presenting to Attorney-general Wade Warren Thayer the facts concerning a tale of woe which a Portuguese girl named Glory Paris, whose parents reside on the Garden Island, told the latter the other day. Claiming that she was but 19 years old, that she had four children to support, and that the husband has been wrongfully cast into jail, Glory Paris' story was taken by the attorney-general to have some meaning to it.

The attorney-general communicated with the Kauai officials, who immediately visited the girl's parents, only to learn that Glory Paris' had no children and that her story was otherwise a gigantic frame-up. This evidence was immediately forwarded attorney-general and the matter straightened out just in time to prevent a number of charitable people of the metropolis coming to the aid of one whom they believed to be a destitute mother with four children.

The campaign which Dr. John W. Wadman, recently appointed superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League with headquarters at Honolulu, is now carrying on throughout Kauai is the forerunner of a great movement which is to permeate every section of Hawaii.

Doctor Wadman is out in earnest to fight the saloon and has the staunch support of Jeff McCann, United States district attorney, in his undertaking. Mr. McCann has stirred the people of Honolulu with the many forceful, straight-to-the-point addresses on the temperance question.

Next Football

The game of football on the Lihue grounds next Sunday afternoon will be between the Makaweli and German teams. A hard-fought battle is anticipated.

GERMANS HONOR GREAT EMPEROR

Function of Kegel Club Elaborate And Successful Affair

The Kegel Club had a royal time of it last Tuesday evening, the occasion being the "celebration" in honor of the anniversary of Emperor Wilhelm, of Germany.

The formal part of the "session" was in charge of President Rice, although Mr. C. Maser is to be credited with the arrangement of the splendid program. The good-time started at 7:30 and lasted until near midnight.

A long extra table had been arranged in the middle of the room for the purposes of the banquet; and on it was a feast gotten up in regulation German style. There were salads of various kinds, German cheese and sausage and numerous other things common to the Fatherland.

The piano from the Fairview Hotel had been brought over, so that there was good music and plenty of it during the evening. Mr. Maser had decorated the hall in fine style, ferns being used around a large portrait of the Emperor, which was conspicuously displayed.

Rev. Hans Isenberg responded in a patriotic, though happy, vein to the toast "The Emperor." His remarks frequently drew forth rounds of applause, and at the close all present joined in singing "Hock, Sol er leben."

Among those present were: Messrs. Wolters, Weber, Maser, Rev. Hans Isenberg, Rohrig, Siebel, E. Mahn, F. Rutsch, P. Rutsch, Pruesser, Andermann, Masseber, Cropp, W. Rice, Sheldon, Schieber, Grote, A. Wilcox, Thurtell, Hill, C. S. Dole, Harnessed, Vincent, Robinson, Morgan, Wixer, Wishard, Philip Rice, F. Mahn, and D. W. Dean.

Joviality reigned throughout the evening, there not being a single dull moment; and the affair was unanimously voted one of the most successful and pleasant ever pulled off by the Kegel Club.

It's Number Is 142

Manager Rohrig, of the Lihue Store, bought the handsome truck brought to Kauai a couple of weeks ago by Mr. Humphreys, of the Von Hamm-Young Company. Its number is 142, as is also a department of the Lihue Store and thereby hangs a tale:

Mr. Rohrig was telling Mr. E. H. W. Broadbent about his purchase. It so happens that the latter's auto number is 142.

"Yes," said the manager of Grove Farm; "and I suppose you want my auto number, too, to correspond with your telephone number."

Mr. Rohrig admitted that he would like to have it, and Mr. Broadbent inquired how much he would give for it. "A box of good cigars," replied the merchant. "It's a go!"—the sugar man.

And that is how the fine, new truck gets 142 as its number, while Mr. Broadbent will have to secure another number for his flier.

EXEMPTIONS IN INCOME TAX LAW

The following are the special exemptions mentioned in the new Federal income law:

For the past year 1913 the specific exemptions will be $2,500, or $3,333.33 in a case of a married person, and in future years $3,000 and $4,000, respectively. Where the tax has been withheld on part of the income at the source, or where part of the income comes as dividends upon stock of a corporation which is taxable under the corporation tax section of the law, the regulations set forth that such income shall be deducted from the individual's total net income when computing the amount on which he is taxable.

The law imposes a tax of 1 per cent and provides that individuals who have an income over $20,000 and not more than $50,000 shall pay an additional tax of 1 per cent on such amount; on all over $50,000, and not over $75,000, 2 per cent; on all over $75,000 and not over $100,000, 3 per cent; on all over $100,000 and not over $250,000, 4 per cent; all over $250,000 and not over $500,000, 5 per cent, and all over $500,000, 6 per cent.

Lights Wrongly Placed.

Editor GARDEN ISLAND:—

There is a law which states in effect that vehicles using the public highways during the hours of darkness shall carry a burning lamp.

It does not specifically state that the light shall be placed in such a position as to be seen by others using the same highway. Common sense interpretation of this law, however, would indicate that its intent is to protect public life and property and therefore, the light should be placed in a conspicuous position.

On almost any evening, one may observe wagons travelling the public highways without any light showing until closely approached, these lights either being placed in the bed of the wagon or attached to the dark directly back of the horse. Even when seen, many times the direction of travel cannot with certainty be determined at a distance.

Being at times really dangerous, particularly on very dark nights it appears as though some effort should be made toward the improvement of these conditions.

Rice To College

Philip L. Rice will leave early in April for Ann Arbor where he will take an advanced law course, extending over a period of two years. He goes in the Spring in order to engage in work preliminary to the opening of the regular term in September.

School Officials Here

Inspector Raymond and Superintendent H. H. Brodie spent last Tuesday night at the Hotel Fairview, and on Wednesday visited the schools around Lihue, returning to Hanapepe Wednesday night. While here they had a look at the old court house, which has been spoken of as a possibility for use as a high school.

Is Havelock Foy Present

Governor Pinkham has requested The GARDEN ISLAND to inquire if Havelock Foy, formerly of Linsadill, Armagh, Ireland, is on the island of Kauai. He is described as 5 ft. 9 in. in height, dark hair and eyes, strong face, fresh complexion, probably clean shaven, unusual figure and age 28. The father of the young man wrote to President Wilson about the matter, and stated that when last heard from Havelock Foy was in the Hawaiian Islands. Any authentic information concerning the young man, if on Kauai, or otherwise, will be appreciated.

Automobile Lists

Neat cards, giving the list of registered automobiles on the island of Kauai, number of machine and name and residence of owner have been issued by THE GARDEN ISLAND Publishing Co., and are on sale at 15 cents each, while they last. Every auto owner and every garage should have these cards for ready reference.

Omar Khayyam and PRIMO PALE

"A book of verses underneath the bough--"

"Course you don't have to have plain verses: a good story will do—even some 'fish' stories;—or you can take along some of the popular magazines—there's often a little good stuff in them besides the advertisements."

"Some Primo Pale, a loaf of bread, and--"

Ah! That PRIMO PALE! The name recalls pleasant times! No maudlin crying; no "rough-house"; no evil effects; just pleasant conviviality—light-hearted effervescence, jollity and camaraderie!

"Thou, beside me, singing in the Wilderness--"

Ragtime—or sacred—songs will do, though no one will call Honolulu a Wilderness; that is, he couldn't call it that and get away with it! But it might have been a Wilderness if PRIMO PALE hadn't been discovered!

"Oh, Wilderness were Paradise now!"

Catch that! Omar KNEW this place was going to be called the Paradise of the Pacific—and that it would be more of a Paradise because of PRIMO PALE!

Primo Pale will help make any Wilderness a Paradise
